

b.Special Revelation: is how God has made himself known by particular acts and words, especially the Word of the Master (=Scripture), and the Master of the Word (=Jesus Messiah).

I. INTRODUCTION

II. GOD’S EXISTENCE

A. Biblical and Presuppositional

If we are Christians, we can say that we believe that God is “really there,” because He has revealed Himself to all men _____ by creation and providence, _____ in the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments, _____ in His Son, our Master, Jesus, Messiah; and _____ through the Work of His Spirit.

B. General Revelation Versus Special Revelation

1.The Two Defined

a.General Revelation: is that unveiling of God, the knowledge of God’s being and will which is given to all people everywhere, at all times, through the ordinary experience of being alive in God’s world.

2.What Does General Revelation Teach Us?

(Ps 19; Rom 1.18-32; Acts 14.14-18; Acts 17.16ff)

III. THE ATTRIBUTES OF GOD

1. The Independence or Self-Existence of God

(John 5:26, Acts 17:24-2)

2. The Immutability of God

(Num. 23:19, 1Sam 15:29; Ps. 102:26, Mal. 3:6, Heb. 6:17-18, 13:8)

3. The Infiniteness of God

(Ps. 90:2-4, Jer. 23:23-24, Isa. 57:15, Prov. 15:3, Ps. 139:7-10, Ps. 145:3)
